1735 Jersey Ave LLC v. Luxe Living Design, LLC et al.
Case No. 3:24-cv-06168

Dear Magistrate Judge Quinn,

I am an attorney with the law firm of Twersky PLLC, counsel for Defendant Luxe Living Design, LLC (“Defendant” or “Tenant”) in the captioned matter. I respectfully submit this letter in response to Plaintiff 1735 Ave LLC’s (“Plaintiff” or “Landlord”) Letter filed on November 15, 2024 (“Letter”), D.E. 38.¹

Though in Plaintiff’s Letter it claims that Defendant is in violation of the Court’s Order, this is false. On or about November 1, 2024, Defendant paid October rent in the amount of $165,000.00. Defendant apprised the Court of this payment in Defendant’s Status Letter submitted on November 1, 2024. See Status Letter, D.E. 34. Then, on or about November 7, 2024, the Court ordered that “Defendants shall pay monthly rent in the amount of $224,000.00. The monthly installments are due on the 7th of each month.” See Text Order, D.E. 35. In the Text Order, the Court ordered that going forward, the Defendant must pay rent in the amount of $224,000.00, and also allowed for Defendant to pay November’s rent by November 12, 2024. See Text Order. D.E. 35.

The Text Order did not order Defendant to retroactively pay $224,000.00 for any months passed. Since October rent was already paid prior to the Text Order being entered, it is clear that Defendant was not obligated to pay any more for the October rent payment. Thereafter, on or about November 12, 2024, Defendant paid the November rent, in the amount of $224,000.00 pursuant to the Text Order. Accordingly, Defendant is in compliance with the Text Order.
